BYLAWS

1. The Board of Directors will conduct a bi-annual review of these bylaws.
2. Whitehorse Rifle & Pistol Club may amend its bylaws by special resolution but the change is not effective until filed with and approved by the Registrar of Societies.
3. An amendment to the bylaws shall be made by deleting, substituting, or adding entire clauses.
4. The notice of the meeting at which a special resolution to change the bylaws is to be voted on shall state:
  - a) the numbered section containing the identified clause(s) to be deleted, if any; and
  - b) the entire text of the clause(s) to be substituted or added.
5. A member may request an amendment to a by-law by:
  - a) submitting a written request, at any time, to the Board of Directors, or
  - b) making a motion to request an amendment to a by-law at the annual general meeting, if this business item is included in the approved agenda.
6. The Directors will consider the merits of the amendment before proceeding. Such consideration shall not be unduly delayed.

SEAL

1. The Directors may adopt a seal for the Society and substitute a new seal.
2. The seal shall be affixed only when authorized by a resolution of the Directors and then only in the presence of the persons prescribed in the resolution, or if no other persons are prescribed, in the presence of the President and

- a) Secretary-Treasurer; or
- b) Secretary

DISSOLUTION OF THE SOCIETY

1. If the Society no longer serves the purpose for which it was incorporated or where the members have lost interest in the Society; the Society may surrender its certificate by special resolution.
2. Notice of the special meeting respecting the dissolution must be given to its members and creditors at least 21 days in advance of the scheduled meeting.
3. Assets remaining after all debts have been paid will be distributed to one or more incorporated Yukon societies as determined by a special resolution.
4. The Board of Directors will be responsible for submitting the final reports and reconciliation of the affairs of the Society to the Yukon Registrar of Societies.

SECTION 2

MEMBERSHIP

1. The Board of Directors is responsible for determining the 12-month period of time to be designated as the membership year, the fee structure and defining the membership classifications.
2. All memberships shall expire at the end of the membership year.
3. A member in good standing is one who is current in paying their membership dues.
4. Every member shall uphold the constitution and comply with these bylaws and the range rules.
5. A person shall cease to be a member of the Society:

2. Cause may be considered as, but is not limited to:
  - a) any action or deed which may compromise the safety or well-being of any member;
  - b) any action or deed which may be considered prejudicial to the Society or its purpose;
  - c) misuse of Society property, facilities or purpose.
3. The affected member will be provided with reasonable opportunity to defend the charges against them prior to a decision being reached
4. The Board of Directors will investigate all charges against the member and make their decision based on the available evidence. The decision to terminate membership will be deemed final upon a majority vote of the Board of Directors.
5. A record of decision will be maintained as a confidential document for reference by future executive members.
6. The membership roster will be flagged to alert the Secretary of any issues attributed to the member in question.
7. The President shall ensure a written notice of the decision made by the Board of Directors is received by the affected member.
8. In the case of suspension, notice will also include the length of time for the suspension and process for re-instatement of full membership privileges and responsibilities.
9. An expelled member may appeal the decision in writing. See Appendix # 5 Appeal Process.

SECTION 3

MEETINGS – TYPE, TIME AND PLACE

Annual General Meeting

The Annual General Meeting shall be held at a time and place chosen by the President within 90 days of the end of the fiscal year of the Society and no later than the last day of the anniversary month.

Special Meetings

1. Special meetings of the Society shall be held at a time and place, in accordance with the Societies Act, that the Directors decide.
2. The Directors may call a special meeting if requested to do so, in writing, by not less than 3 members eligible to vote at the meeting.

Directors Meetings

1. A meeting of the Board of Directors is reserved for developing the policies and managing the operational procedures of the organization.
2. Board of Directors meetings shall be held at least once every three months at a place and time determined by the Directors.
3. A Director may at any time, convene a meeting of the board.

Notice

1. The Board of Directors will determine the method by which the notice of a general meeting will be communicated and delivered to a member.
2. Notice of a general meeting shall be communicated to each member on the register who is entitled to vote at the meeting for which notice is being given.
3. Notice shall be given to the professional accountant if applicable; however, no other person is entitled to receive a notice of a general meeting.
4. Notice shall be given not less than 10 days or more than 60 days before the meeting.
5. Where a special resolution is to be voted on, notice of the meeting shall be given or sent to each member entitled to vote at the meeting not less than 21 days or more than 60 days before the meeting. The notice shall include the text of the special resolution to be submitted.
6. The notice shall specify the place, day and hour of the meeting and, in case of special business, the general nature of the business.
7. Methods may include either electronic personal delivery or by mail to the member's registered address.
8. A notice sent by mail shall be deemed to have been issued as of the fifth business day following that date on which the notice was posted.
9. The accidental omission to give notice of a meeting to or the non-receipt of a notice by any of the members entitled to receive notice does not invalidate proceedings at that meeting.

PROCEEDINGS AT MEETINGS

Parliamentary Procedures

Except as otherwise specifically provided for in this constitution and bylaws, all questions of order or procedure with respect to any meeting or action of this Society's Board of Directors or any committee appointed hereunder, shall be determined by Bourinot's Rules of Order, as revised from time to time and included in the appendices of these by-laws. See Appendix # 3 Rules of Order.

Chairperson

1. The President shall be ex officio chairperson at all meetings.
2. The President of the Society, the vice President, or, in the absence of both, one of the other Directors present, shall preside as chairperson of a general meeting.
3. During the election of Officers at the annual general meeting, the President may stand aside as the chairperson of those proceedings, requesting that a neutral member assume the role of chairperson.
4. At a general meeting the members present shall choose one of their number to be chairperson if:
  - a) there is no President, vice President, or other Director present within 15 minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, or
  - b) the President and all the other Directors present are unwilling to act as chairperson.
5. The chairperson shall not move or propose a resolution and shall not second a motion or resolution proposed by another person, except as otherwise stated.
6. In case of an equality of votes, the chairperson shall not have a casting vote and the motion or resolution is defeated.

Annual General Meeting

Business of the annual general meeting will include:

1. Adoption of the agenda.
2. Presentation of various reports including:
  - a) President's report
  - b) Financial reports
  - c) Directors reports

  - e) Section Head reports.
3. Election of the Officers of the Society. Newly elected Officers shall be installed effective at the end of this meeting.
4. Appointment of a professional accountant, if required.
5. Special business shall not be conducted at a general meeting unless notice has been given of the proposal to conduct that business at that meeting.
6. No other business will be conducted or discussed during this meeting.

Special Meeting

Business of a special meeting may include all business other than the business that is reserved for an annual general meeting.

Board of Directors Meeting

1. The chairperson of a meeting of the Board of Directors may propose, move and vote.
2. During the business of the meetings, the Board of Directors will:
  - a) Review and revise the general operational procedures of the Society;
  - b) Develop and publish policies related to the functions of the Society;
  - c) Discuss and determine final decisions on financial commitments;
  - d) Set agenda items for future general meetings;
  - e) Maintain a record of decisions.

Adjournment of Meetings

1. A general meeting may be adjourned from time to time and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at an adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place.
2. Except, as required by this bylaw, it is not necessary to give notice of an adjournment or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned general meeting.
3. When a meeting is adjourned for 10 days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given as in the case of the original meeting.

Quorum

1. Unless otherwise required by law or by-law, approval shall require the favourable vote of a majority of accredited members present at the meeting.
2. A quorum of three quarters of the accredited members present at the meeting is required to pass a special resolution presented at a meeting convened for that purpose.
3. At the annual general meeting a quorum is the presence of 30 accredited members plus three members of the Board of Directors.
4. At any general meeting a quorum is the presence of 10 accredited members plus two members of the Board of Directors.
5. At a Board of Directors meeting the presence of a majority of its members shall constitute a quorum.
6. At a section meeting the presence of the section head and one accredited member constitutes a quorum.

Voting

1. A member in good standing and 18 years of age or more, present at a meeting of members is entitled to vote.
2. Only one vote per membership classification.
3. Voting, except for the election of Officers or Directors, is by a show of hands.
4. Voting by proxy is not permitted.

Nominations

1. Any member in good standing is eligible for nomination to the position of President, vice President, Treasurer, Secretary, Secretary -Treasurer or Director at large.
2. The Board of Directors may appoint a nomination committee who shall submit a list of names of candidates, one for each of the offices to be filled, to be presented at the annual general meeting.
3. Nominations for all offices can be made from the floor during the annual general meeting.
4. The nominee, the nominator and the seconder of the nomination must be present at the annual general meeting.

Elections

1. Separate elections shall be held for each office to be filled.
2. An election shall be by secret ballot unless a nominee is acclaimed.
3. If no successor is elected the person previously elected or appointed may continue to hold office.
4. The term of office for all elected positions will be one year. In the situation where an Officer or Director is elected part way through the year, they will then serve until the end of the term.
5. The Directors shall cease to hold office when their successors are elected at a general meeting of the Society.

SECTION 4

OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS OF THE SOCIETY

MEMBERSHIP

1. The executive members of the Society shall be the President, the vice-President and either a Secretary -Treasurer or a Secretary and a Treasurer.
2. The Board of Directors shall be the executive members, the immediate past President and up to five Directors at large to a maximum of 10 members.

AUTHORITY

1. The Officers and Directors may exercise all the powers and perform all actions that the Society may direct, except where these bylaws or statutes are otherwise lawfully directed or required to be exercised or done by the Society in a general meeting.
2. The authority of the Officers and Directors is subject to:
  - a) all laws affecting the Society;
  - b) these bylaws;

- c) rules, not being inconsistent with these bylaws, which are made from time to time by the Society in a general meeting; and
  - d) the conduct and execution of the of the Society' affairs based on common business practices.
3. No rule, made by the Society in a general meeting, invalidates a prior act of the Officers or Directors that would have been valid if that new rule had not been made.
  4. No act or proceeding of the Directors is invalid only by reason of there being less than the prescribed number of Directors in office.
  5. Implementation of the operational activities of the club rests with the Executive Committee.
  6. The Board of Directors takes guidance from the general membership.
  7. The executive committee takes guidance from the Board of Directors.

APPOINTMENT OF SECTIONS OR COMMITTEES

1. The need to create a Section or Committee will be determined by the Board of Directors.
2. A Section or Committee so formed shall conform to the rules imposed by the Board of Directors.
3. A Section Head or Committee Chairperson will be appointed by the Board of Directors.
4. A Section Head or Committee Chairperson may be removed by the Board of Directors upon:
  - a) presentation of their resignation;
  - b) completion of the assigned activities;
  - c) failure to comply with the objectives of the assigned activity.

REMUNERATION

1. No Officer or Director shall receive compensation for being or acting as an Officer or Director.
2. An Officer, Director or accredited member shall be reimbursed for all out of pocket expenses necessarily and reasonably incurred while engaged in the affairs of the Society, with prior approval for the expenditure.
3. Other than reimbursement of expenses as outlined in these bylaws, no Officer or Director shall receive compensation for any service rendered to this Society in their official capacity.
4. Travel for the business of the Society, approved in advance by the Board of Directors, will be reimbursed.
5. Reimbursement of per diem expenses shall be the lesser of actual expenses or the published Government of Yukon travel allowance rates for meals, accommodations and distance travelled. Receipts are required to support reimbursement.

REMOVAL FROM OFFICE

1. Any Officer or Director of the Society may be removed from office for cause.
2. Cause may be considered as, but is not limited to:
  - a) Acts of malfeasance of office;

- b) Misappropriation of funds;
  - c) Misuse of association property or facilities;
  - d) Action, official or personal and considered to be prejudicial to the association or its purpose.
3. Any accredited member may submit their request for an Officer or Director to be removed from office to the Board of Directors.
  4. The Board of Directors will meet with due haste to gather and assess the details of the charges and implement a response plan.
  5. At minimum, the response plan will:
    - a) Assess the impact to the organization and if further action is necessary,
    - b) Determine if legal action is required, and,
    - c) Outline how the information will be communicated to the membership,
  6. The members may then, by special resolution, remove an Officer or Director before the expiration of their term of office.
  7. The affected Officer or Director may appeal the decision in writing to the Board of Directors. See Appendix # 5 Appeal Process.

VACANCIES

1. If the office of President becomes vacant for any reason, the vice President shall advance in office.
2. If provision for such advancement fails to fill the office, the Board of Directors shall call a special meeting for the purpose of electing a President.
3. Each member in good standing shall be given two weeks' notice of time, place and purpose of said meeting.
4. In the event of a vacancy of any other office, the Board of Directors shall appoint a member of the Society to fill said vacancy for the remainder of the term.
5. In the event the number of vacancies on the Board of Directors is reduced to a number that is less than required to form a quorum, the general membership of the Society shall have power to fill vacancies by an election held at any regular general meeting upon prior notice and in the manner stated herein. Such notice may be given by any remaining Officer or if none remaining, by any Society member.

RESPONSIBILITIES

President

The President is the chief executive Officer of the Society and is responsible for the overall management of the organization.

The President shall:

1. Supervise the other Officers in the execution of their duties.

SECTION 5

FINANCE

FISCAL YEAR

The fiscal year shall be January 1st to December 31st.

FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

1. In compliance with the Societies Act and Regulations, the Treasurer or Secretary-Treasurer will ensure that the financial accounts are prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.
2. Presentation of the financial statements at the annual general meeting will:
  - a) Consist of a balance sheet and a statement of revenue and expenditures;
  - b) Be reviewed and approved by at least two Directors;
  - c) Be signed by the Treasurer or Secretary-Treasurer and one other executive Director.

PROFESSIONAL ACCOUNTANT

This part applies only when:

- a) the Societies Regulations requires the Society to have a professional accountant, or
  - b) the Society has resolved to appoint a professional accountant.
1. At each annual general meeting the Society shall appoint a professional accountant as required.
  2. The Directors may appoint a professional accountant to fill a vacancy occurring in that office between one annual general meeting and the next.

3. A professional accountant may be removed by ordinary resolution.
4. No Director and no employee of the Society shall act as the appointed professional accountant.

FINANCIAL AUTHORITY

1. Signing authority on bank accounts and other financial instruments of the Society is delegated to two members of the executive where one signatory will always be the Treasurer.
2. Authority for non-discretionary expenditures to meet the day to day operational requirements of the Society rests with the executive members.
3. Discretionary expenditures over $1,000.00 for goods or services necessary for the general operation of the organization, requires approval by a two-thirds majority of the Board of Directors.
4. Approval for capital expenditures for goods or services, in excess of $15, 000.00, requires the passing of a motion at a meeting of the Board of Directors followed by the approval of a special resolution by the membership.
5. Limits to spending will be identified by approval of an annual operational budget presented at the annual general meeting. Justification for variances in the preceding year will be included with the annual financial report.
6. Failure to obtain an approval for the operational budget will allow only non-discretionary expenditures until a revised budget is presented for approval at a special meeting called for that purpose.
7. If health and safety are compromised, expenditures to immediately remediate the situation will be made and a report of the incident will be presented to the general membership.

BORROWING

Borrowing is not permitted.

FEES AND DUES

1. The Board of Directors will determine the fee structure for each membership classification, and for any services or programs rendered by the Society.
2. Changes to the annual membership dues will be communicated to members with at least three months advance notification.
3. The Board of Directors is responsible for developing and revising the operational policy and procedures required for implementing and adjusting the various fees schedules.

METHODS OF PAYMENT

Cash Accounts

1. Access to and use of all accounts shall be controlled by the Treasurer.
2. All expenses must be supported by invoice or receipt.
3. When expenses are paid by cheque, they shall be signed by the Treasurer and one other authorized executive Officer.

4. Automatic bank deductions may be established to facilitate the payment of regular services.
5. Charge accounts may be established for the purchase of supplies, services and equipment.
6. A petty cash account shall be established for the reimbursement of authorized small purchases paid out of pocket.
7. A separate cash account shall be established and maintained for receipt of funds from sale of targets, ammunition and other sundry items.
8. Distinctly separate accounts shall be established for all special events.

Service Contracts

1. The Society may enter into service contracts, as required, to facilitate the submission and payment of invoices for services rendered by or to the Society.
2. Contracts must be signed by the Treasurer and one other member of the executive.

SECTION 6

POLICY AND PROCEDURES

The Board of Directors is responsible for developing and revising policies and procedures that govern the expected behaviour at the range and the general operations of the organization. The details of these policies and procedures will be maintained separately from the by-laws.

APPENDICES

1. In order to maintain compliance with current regulations that govern or affect the operation of the Society, the Board of Directors will ensure that current and relevant Acts and Regulations are available for guidance and decision-making purposes.
2. Other documents to be included as an appendix are defined within the by-laws of the association.

CONFLICT OF INTEREST

1. The conflict of interest policy will require each member of the Board of Directors to disclose their conflict or potential conflict and to excuse themselves from voting on any matter in which they have a conflict.
2. The minutes of a meeting in which a member of the Board of Directors declares their conflict and abstains from casting a vote, will document that action.

DISPUTE RESOLUTION

1. Any dispute concerning the interpretation or application of the bylaws, and any dispute concerning the rights of a member or the powers of a Director or Officer, shall be submitted to the Board of Directors and resolved by arbitration as described under the Arbitration Act of the Yukon.

HARASSMENT

1. Aggressive, abusive or harassing behaviour will not be tolerated.
2. The Board of Directors will develop, revise and communicate a policy outlining the expectations related to respectful behaviour by all members, users and visitors.
3. The Board of Directors will investigate any report of aggressive, abusive or harassing behaviour that occurs within the operational authority of the organization and take appropriate remediation.

INCIDENT REPORTING

1. All incidents involving injury to persons or damage to property will be investigated by the Board of Directors.
2. Where required, notification will be made to the appropriate agency or authority within the identified reporting period.
3. A summary report will be provided to the membership at a general meeting and will include any remediation required to reduce future risk of injury or damage.

PARTISAN ACTIVITIES

The organization as an entity will refrain from commenting on or participating in any activity that will bias the philosophy of the organization or jeopardize the credibility or values of the organization, and by the extension, its members.

PHILANTHROPY

The Board of Directors will develop a process for managing both the receipt of donations to the organization and the contribution of services or funds to other community organizations. The Treasurer will account for the receipt and disbursement of these funds as a separate budget item within the general accounting.
